Pastor's Study

Jesus promises His followers in our Sunday Gospel that He will always be with us. On the last night of His life on Earth, Jesus fulfilled that promise: "I will always be with you." Wherever we are, Jesus is there to hear our prayer. We read His words each day in the Gospels.

Jesus also wanted us to experience personal presence in our lives. Today, again, Jesus blesses the bread and wine so that He might be with us in His body and blood. In an intensive personal experience, Jesus knows you and you know Jesus. We humbly and lovingly welcome Him into our hearts. For two thousand years, Catholics have remained faithful to the powerful gift of Himself that Jesus gives us. At Mass today, united with our sisters and brothers in the faith, we are spiritually nourished by our Lord and Savior.

---Our Saint Francis of Assisi Parish Council met on Wednesday, July 28th, to discuss a parish census. Present were Father Pat, Mary Nichols, Paul Niedbalski, Dawna and Danny Kessler, Sandi Hudson, and Nanette Martin.

Next week we will provide a survey of family members and communication information. These forms will be sent through the mail and be given out in church. Please return these forms so you may help me to meet your spiritual needs.
