Pastor's Study

At this Sunday's Mass, we celebrate a miracle – the first miracle of Jesus. In the little town of Cana of Galilee, Jesus is with friends for a wedding. At his mother's request, Jesus turns water into wine so that the celebration of this couple's love can continue to be enjoyed by their guests. For Jesus this miracle was insignificant. Jesus would give sight to the blind, heal the dying, raise the dead, and feed the crowds of hungry people. Jesus's final miracle would be to turn wine into His sacred blood.

We as Catholics have a wonderful understanding of small miracles. Often, we pray to Mary for help in difficult times. Mary always says, "Do what my Son says."

Jesus blesses us at every moment of our lives. Jesus blesses us in joyful times and sad times. In all our needs we turn to Jesus in prayer.
