Pastor's Study

Jesus is with us on our worst days. In our Gospel today, a child has died. Nothing on this Earth is a harsher reality. The question immediately comes to mind, "Where is God?" Death is final, death is separation, death is loss. Grieving for someone we love brings us to our darkest moment. Without faith, there is no comfort. Nothing can console us; no person can help us.

Only Jesus is our savior when a loved one dies. Jesus, the Son of God, who has come to Earth. Jesus says, "Little girl, arise."

As Christians, we have hope for eternal life. Jesus is the only true comfort in the face of death. "Never be afraid. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places."
