Pastor's Study

The gospel of today's Mass reminds us of the fact that we will be judged by God. During the season of Lent as we fast, pray, and share, we are striving to be ready for our Heavenly life. As Christians, we know what is really important in our Earthly lives.

Our love for God and our love for others are truly our eternal treasures. Faithful to saying our prayers and attending Mass will serve us well on Judgement Day. Our kindness and generosity to those in need will be our way to the kingdom of God.

As Christians, we are not afraid of judgement. We want to be with our loving God. Praise be His mercy.

Please note there will be Confession available this weekend after 11:00 Mass on Sunday. Confessors will be Father Pat and Father Joe.
