Pastor's Study

Jesus promised His apostles the gift of the Holy Spirit. Fifty days after Jesus rose from the dead as the apostles and the holy women gathered in the upper room where Jesus ate the Last Supper. His promise was fulfilled. In the symbols of wind and tongues of fire, the Holy Spirit came to these early Christians. The divine spirit changed them; from fear came courage, from confusion came enlightenment. They left their hiding place and began to proclaim the Gospel to all who would listen.

You and I received the Holy Spirit at Confirmation. I pray we all are still alive in the joy of Christian faith. A pentecostal Christian is a person with an enthusiasm about our belief in Jesus. We find joy in praising God in prayer. We eagerly share our hope for salvation. We see one another as sisters and brothers in God.

Today we celebrate our faith in Jesus, our hope for heaven, our love of God. In a culture of depressing paganism, it is exciting to be a Christian – to be ‘alive’ in our faith, praising God, sharing efforts, loving the lonely. We pray to be a pentecostal Christian, a pentecostal family, a pentecostal church.
