Pastor's Study

This weekend we celebrate the memory of people we love and revere. As a nation we decorate the graves of those brave men and women who gave their lives so that we now live in freedom. May we use that freedom to create a country in which we all love in harmony. As peoples of every race, religion, and color, we should be united in honoring the sacrifices of our deceased brothers and sisters.

Of course, with love we remember our beautiful family members. We cherish the gifts that they bestowed on us during their lifetimes. We received an inheritance of wisdom, courage, and unconditional love from them. For these gifts, we will always be thankful.

Memorial Day teaches us to create inspiring and beautiful memories for those who will come after us – family, friends, fellow Christians. As we have been blessed, may we bless them.
