Pastor's Study

Our Gospel today teaches us to be generous. The widow feeds the prophet Elijah from her meager supply of food. A poor woman donates money to the Jewish temple from the little income she has.

Love always demands generosity. We sacrifice for our family, our friends, our brothers and sisters who are in need.

We probably all know people who have such generous spirits, those blessed souls who have eyes that see, hearts that care, hands that help. These special people are saints among us. Generous Christians make this world a better place. They bring healing, comfort, joy to every person their lives touch.

People who bless others are wonderfully blessed by God. As Jesus tells us, "Give and you will receive."
