Pastor's Study

Who is your favorite child in your family? Which of your children do you love the most?

As the holy apostles argued among themselves, Jesus reminded them that God loves each and every one of them.

In God's Heaven, love is not measured and parceled out among the saints. Christians do not compete amongst one another. In God's view, we are all cherished and treasured. Each of us is important and invaluable.

As Christians, love one another and cooperate in serving God and neighbor. We all have an equally valuable task to accomplish. Each of us has God given gifts to share with each other.

With God, there is infinite love for everyone.

--It is vitally important that every Catholic boy and girl learn the lessons that Jesus taught us. Mrs. Sandi Hudson and Mrs.

--This Sunday I will administer the sacrament of healing at each Mass. As we deal with flu, viruses, and other afflictions, we call upon Jesus to heal and comfort us by His healing power.
